Medico-Legal Services

Accord's medico-legal service provides coordination and administrative support in connection with independent medical experts, examinations, reports and diagnostic imaging.

Medical opinions are provided independently by the relevant medical expert or healthcare professional. Accord does not influence an expert's clinical opinion, diagnosis, prognosis or conclusions.

Invoice Recoveries

Information concerning commercial invoice recovery is provided for general business information only.

Accord cannot guarantee that any particular debt will be recovered. Recovery depends on the circumstances of each matter, including the evidence available, the debtor's position, solvency, disputes and other relevant factors.

Our No Recovery, No Commission arrangement applies only to instructions accepted by Accord and is subject to the commission rate and terms agreed before recovery work begins.

Any court fees, external legal fees, tracing charges, enforcement costs, disbursements or other third-party charges are outside the No Recovery, No Commission arrangement unless expressly agreed otherwise.

Where legal proceedings or reserved legal services become necessary, these may require separate instructions to an appropriately authorised legal professional.

Contract Assistance

Accord's Contract Assistance service provides commercial contract drafting, review, amendment and documentation support.

Accord Professional Solutions is not a firm of solicitors and does not provide reserved legal activities.

Our Contract Assistance service is intended to provide practical commercial documentation support and should not be treated as a substitute for independent legal advice where specialist or regulated legal advice is required.
